

The American Outlaws: Austin Chapter, Haymaker to host 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup, CONCACAF Gold Cup watch parties

Austin, Tx: The American Outlaws: Austin Chapter (AO Austin), in partnership with Haymaker, will host watch parties in June and July as the U.S. Women's and Men's National Teams defend their titles in two of international soccer's biggest tournaments. The community is invited to join them as they cheer on both teams, creating the same loud, passionate and united atmosphere seen in the stands at the games themselves.

AO Austin will also be teaming up with the Austin Soccer Foundation during the duration of these two tournaments. AO Austin will be conducting raffles with all proceeds going to the Austin Soccer Foundation and will also be donating a portion of all of their merchandise sales made during these two tournaments.

The AO Austin is a not-for-profit organization formed in May 2010 and was the 25th addition to the American Outlaws network. AO Austin's goal in addition to uniting and strengthen US Soccer to create a fun and enthusiastic way to support the men's and women's US Soccer teams at a local level here in Austin. You can find them at their home bar, Haymaker, for any US match.

The USWNT, winners of the 2015 Women's World Cup, will begin their quest toward a fourth World Cup title in France June 11 versus Thailand [see below for a full schedule]. Should they advance out of their group, they will enter a 16-team knockout format that will conclude with the championship game Sunday, July 7.

Meanwhile, the USMNT will participate in the CONCACAF Gold Cup, a biannual competition among men's teams from North and Central America as well as the Caribbean. Winners of the 2017 Gold Cup, they begin group stage play June 18 against Guyana [see below for a full schedule]. If they were to reach the championship game, they also would play July 7 — an unprecedented event for U.S. soccer.
